

Sample / Draft Final Exam for Intermediate Classes 2012

Note: this is a guide only. The format and content of final exam is not yet decided / finalised.

Section 1: Pronunciation (10%)

Section 2: Communicative Writing Task (10%)

Section 1

Find your way through this maze following the correct stress pattern indicated.

From Pronunciation Games by Mark Hancock © Cambridge University Press 1996

PHOTOCOPIABLE

33

Stress maze
A10

Section 2

Choose one of the topics. Include three examples of grammar and vocabulary we have studied in class, and underline them.

- Write an e-mail about a holiday you are having. Include ① Where you are, ② what you are doing there, ③ what you plan to do next, ④ any other interesting information.
- Write an e-mail about a problem you are having in your studies. Include ① Which class you are in, ② what the problem is, ③ what you have done to try to solve the problem, ④ any other useful information.
- Write an e-mail to your boss about a problem you are having. Include ① What the problem is, ② how the problem began, ③ what you have done to try to solve it, ④ any other useful information.
- Detail your opinion on plagiarism in university.
- Detail your opinion on the issue "Do schools kill creativity?", referring to Sir Ken Robinson.
- Detail your opinion on a recent issue or problem discussed in the media.